

Vendors Wanted for Cape May Renaissance Faire/Festival Oct. 2nd and 3rd, 2010

Access to Art, an 18 year old not for profit, that presents the visual and performing arts is presenting a Cape May Renaissance Festival this Oct. 1st and 2nd with Renaissonics, a Renaissance band, heard on NPR, from Boston, and Shakespeare, Morris dancing, lute playing, Elizabethan art songs, Punch & Judy and authentic entertainment from the Renaissance period. Step back to the age of the Renaissance.

We have three potential locations in the Cape May area (Delaware River & Bay Authority, Cold Spring Village, and a 35 acre vineyard field in West Cape May on Stephen St.) We will utilize and select the locations upon finalizing the number of vendors and acts, and laying out spaces. You will be informed of your location, as we decide sites.

We are looking for Renaissance vendors, and vendors of handmade crafts, art, costumes, metal work, pottery, needlepoint, boat building, glass, weaving, jewelry, wood carving, etc.

Please give us your name, address, phone number and e-mail. We will charge $150. for two days, or $75. per day. Send $25. for juried evaluation of your craft. We will have professional artists jury the merchandise. Please tell us what items you are selling, how much of the items are handcrafted.

A Renaissance costume is mandatory for vendors to join in the 16th century experience. Come as a wench, a pirate, a courtier, a queen, but come and enjoy the world of Elizabeth 1st and the Renaissance.
